

Przedimki i rzeczowniki policzalne

Poziom A1-A2 | Uzupełnij luki. Wpisz a, an, the lub -.

Mini przypomnienie: z pojedynczym rzeczownikiem policzalnym zwykle używamy a/an albo the.
Liczba mnoga może wystąpić bez przedimka.

Ćwiczenie: wpisz a / an / the / -

1 There is ____ chair in the room.

2 ____ chair near the window is old.

3 I have ____ idea.

4 She bought ____ bananas.

5 Can I have ____ apple?

6 ____ apples are in the bag.

7 He wants ____ sandwich.

8 They have ____ dogs.

9 I saw ____ elephant at the zoo.

10 ____ elephant was big.

11 This is ____ book about animals.

12 Do you have ____ pen?

13 We need ____ eggs for the cake.

14 ____ eggs are on the table.

15 There are ____ children in the garden.

Dodatkowo: Podkreśl w zdaniach rzeczowniki policzalne.

Rzeczowniki policzalne - klucz

Poziom A1-A2 | przedimki z rzeczownikami policzalnymi

Symbol - oznacza, że przedimek nie jest potrzebny.

Odpowiedzi

1 There is a chair in the room.

2 The chair near the window is old.

3 I have an idea.

4 She bought - bananas.

5 Can I have an apple?

6 The apples are in the bag.

7 He wants a sandwich.

8 They have - dogs.

9 I saw an elephant at the zoo.

10 The elephant was big.

11 This is a book about animals.

12 Do you have a pen?

13 We need - eggs for the cake.

14 The eggs are on the table.

15 There are - children in the garden.