

Rzeczowniki regularne i nieregularne

Poziom A1-A2 | Uzupełnij luki poprawną formą liczby mnogiej.

Mini przypomnienie: rzeczowniki regularne zwykle tworzą liczbę mnogą przez dodanie -s lub -es.
Rzeczowniki nieregularne mają inne formy, np. child → children, man → men, tooth → teeth.

Ćwiczenie: wpisz poprawną liczbę mnogą

1 I have three _____ on my desk.
(book)

2 The two _____ are playing in the garden.
(child)

3 There are five _____ in the box.
(toy)

4 The _____ are waiting for the bus.
(woman)

5 My dog has strong _____.
(tooth)

6 We bought two red _____.
(dress)

7 There are many _____ in the sky tonight.
(star)

9 The little _____ are sleeping.
(baby)

10 Our kitchen has white _____.
(shelf)

11 The two _____ are eating cheese.
(mouse)

12 She cleaned all the _____ in the room.
(box)

13 I hurt both my _____ yesterday.
(foot)

14 The shop sells expensive _____.
(watch)

15 We visited two big _____ last summer.
(city)

Dodatkowo: Wypisz 3 rzeczowniki regularne i 3 nieregularne z tego ćwiczenia.

Rzeczowniki regularne i nieregularne - klucz

Poziom A1-A2 | nouns

W kluczu odpowiedź jest wpisana bezpośrednio w zdanie i pogrubiona.

Odpowiedzi

1 I have three books on my desk.

2 The two children are playing in the garden.

3 There are five toys in the box.

4 The women are waiting for the bus.

5 My dog has strong teeth.

6 We bought two red dresses.

7 There are many stars in the sky tonight.

8 The men are very friendly.

9 The little babies are sleeping.

10 Our kitchen has white shelves.

11 The two mice are eating cheese.

12 She cleaned all the boxes in the room.

13 I hurt both my feet yesterday.

14 The shop sells expensive watches.

15 We visited two big cities last summer.